

INSTITUT
SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR
INSTITUTE

Useful Information

News items we receive on a daily basis

October 24, 1995

SDEB EVENTS

Jeudi, 2 novembre à 18:30:
L'écrivaine québécoise Monique
Proulx parlera à l'Institut, salle
101. Elle est l'auteur de *sans cœur et sans reproche, le sexe des étoiles et homme invisible à la
fenêtre*.

Thursday, November 9 at 19:00: The Armenian Students Association
presents a lecture by Dr. Levon B.
Chookaszian, an expert of Armenian Miniatures and Art. Dr. Chookaszian will speak on the topic "The Image and Importance of Armenian Women in Arts." The talk will be held in the De Sève Cinema. The Institute is co-sponsoring this event.

Friday, November 10 at noon: The Fellows Research Seminars begin with a presentation lead by research
associate Miriam Cooley, a doctoral candidate in Art Education. Ms.
Cooley will speak on the topic "Who is This Self I am Supposed to be Expressing."

Friday, November 24 at noon: The
Fellows Research Seminar lead by Dr.
Judy Whitehead. Dr. Whitehead will speak on "Marginalizing Female Sexuality: The nation state and
'white slavery' in the late 19th century."

EVENTS

Science College

University of Chicago professor Dr.
Martha McClintock will lecture on
"Of Rats and Women: Menstrual
Synchrony and the Pheromonal
Control of Fertility" on Thursday,
November 9 at 20:30 in the Hall
Bldg, Room 110. Call 2595 for information.

Liberal Arts College

You are invited to a public lecture by Dr. Steven T. Katz, professor of Near Eastern Studies at Cornell
University, on Thursday, November
16 at 20:30 in Room 110 of the Hall
Bldg. Dr. Katz will speak on the topic "Rescue and Resistance during the Holocaust." Call 2565 for further information.

CDAS Lunch Series

The McGill Centre for Developing
Area Studies invites you to hear
Dr. Lydia Makhubu, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Swaziland on Wednesday, October 25 at 12:15. Dr.
Makhubu will speak on the topic
"African Universities and Their Role in Development." This brown bag lunch discussion will be held at the CDAS centre, 3715 Peel,
Seminar Room 100. Call 398-3507/4877 for details.

Ethnic Studies

Concordia-UQAM ethnic studies invites you to a public lecture by York University Professor Emeritus Anthony Richmond on Monday, November 6 from 18:00-20:00. Dr. Richmond's lecture on "Racism, Nationalism and Globalization" will take place in Room 767 of the Hall Bldg. Dr. Richmond is the author of Global Apartheid and Immigration and Ethnic Conflict. Call 8728 for details.

Thursdays at Lonergan

On October 26 Prakashvati Pal, Indian social and political activist and pioneer in the struggle for international women's rights will give a presentation at Lonergan from 15:30 - 17:00. Her topic will be "The Role and Participation of Women in the Indian Independence Movement."

Concert

The Department of Music invites you to an evening of chamber music on Sunday, October 29 at 20:00 in Concordia's Concert Hall, 7141 Sherbrooke St. W. Call 7928 for details.

The Department of Music also has a Thursday Noon Forum until November 30 at Loyola's Concert Hall.

Alumni Bowl-A-Thon

The Association of Alumni Sir George Williams is planning a Bowl-a-thon on Saturday November 4 at 12:30 to help raise scholarship funds.

NOTE: All notices for events are posted on the "events" bulletin board.

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

We have received information concerning the Fellowships and Awards offered to Women University Graduate for the 1996-97 academic year by the Canadian Federation of University Women. The application deadline for all award consideration must be postmarked by Thursday, November 30, 1995.

Ruth Wynn Woodward Professorship

Simon Fraser University, Department of Women's Studies, two-year limited term appointment for the Ruth Wynn Woodward Endowed Professorship in Women's Studies, beginning September 1996. Applications will be accepted until January 15, 1996.

JOBS

Carleton University, Department of Biology, tenure-track position Assistant Professor level, September 1996. Apply before December 15, 1995.

UQAM, département d'histoire, poste de professeur/e régulier/ère en histoire de l'Europe des XVI et XVII siècles, 1er juin 1996. Faire parvenir votre c.v. avant le 15 décembre.

CUSO Québec, cinq postes de coopération au Pérou et en Colombie. Le concours se terminera le 17 novembre prochain. Le début du contrat est prévu pour le premier trimestre de 1996.

NOTE; Complete information for all awards, scholarships and jobs may be found on the "jobs" bulletin board.

CONFERENCE

CRIAW Conference

Registration information for the November 10-12 CRIAW conference at UNBC has been posted on the "academic" board.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The Center for Advanced Feminist Studies at the University of Minnesota invites the submission of abstracts for a collection of essays that address the rhetorical construction of women's bodies and Essays may be on particular cases or theoretical overviews. Submissions are due by January 22, 1996.

NOTE: Information concerning conferences, abstracts or call for papers may be found on the "academic" bulletin board.

NEWS OF INTEREST

The Christmas Campaign coordinator for the Women's Centre of Montreal is looking for donations of food and clothing for their annual Christmas drive. Last year Institute members donated clothing, canned goods and money to the Centre. Magali Dupont is coordinating this year's campaign this year. The Centre is located at 3585 St-Urbain.

An exhibition by artists Isobel Dowler, Cheryl Holmes, Margaret Thomas, Elizabeth Tsuk and Esther Williams will be held from November 4 - 30 at Espace 328 located at 372 Ste-Catherine O. The exhibit is called "Ofrenda" and is open Wednesday - Friday from noon until 18h and Saturday from noon until 17h.

The schedule for Concordia's shuttle buses has been changed for election day, October 30. Please consult the bulletin board.

The Canadian Research Consortium on Southern Africa (CRCSA) at McGill has published a collection of course outlines on Southern Africa titled, Teaching Southern African Studies. Consult the bulletin board for the full announcement or telephone the CRCSA office at 398-1050.